Here's how it all works...

Limited in numbers, CORC Social Membership is designed for individuals and their families who live nearby and want to use Club amenities and participate in events, but do not wish to use resort non-social facilities, such as storage, lodging and camping facilities. Social Membership is not a real estate offering, instead it is a temporary license in the form of a continual membership renewed on a yearly basis.

No matter what you, your family and friends enjoy, you're sure to find the perfect thing to do, no matter what the season. Social Membership includes privileges for both husband and wife, plus all single dependent children of your immediate household up to 26 years of age.

There is a one-time $36.00 processing fee upon acceptance. An annual maintenance fee is also assessed upon acceptance and then yearly on the anniversary of membership. Currently this fee is set at only $195.00, a very conservative figure arrived at by our Board of Directors.
